SPECIAL CHARACTERISTICS:

- The first MSW program in Illinois to specialize in this globally focused, family centered curriculum. It equips students to work with international clients in their domestic practice as well as to contribute to global problem-solving and social work's development around the world.
- All foundation courses are infused with gerontological competencies and certification in Gerontological Social Work is available.
- SSW provides domestic and international field placement opportunities for students to practice social work at the micro or clinical level as well as at the macro or social development level.
- SSW offers licensure for students interested in becoming a school social worker.
- MSW program stresses a gerontological emphasis, which is infused in the foundation course content, exercises and assignments.
- SSW now offers to all MSW students a Concentration in Working with the Military and their Families. The Military Concentration will train MSW students in the knowledge and skills necessary to work with service members, vets, and their families.
