The Certificate in Nonprofit Management*(CNM) program emphasizes interactive learning, with seasoned instructors guiding every class. Students will learn management principles across disciplines through dialogue with other nonprofit practitioners and interaction with CNM faculty.

The program is entirely online, which allows participants from across the country and around the world to work together and learn from each other in a stimulating e-classroom.

Who can benefit from the CNM Program?

- An executive or associate director of a nonprofit organization
- Those considering a career change to the nonprofit sector
- A member or officer of a nonprofit board of directors
- A program associate interested in a position of greater responsibility
- A consultant currently or considering working with nonprofit organizations

In order to earn the Certificate in Nonprofit Management*, students must complete 6 of the 15 eligible online courses within three years and earn at least 70 out of 100 points per course.
