

MASTER OF ARTS IN CURRICULUM & INSTRUCTION

The Master's Degree in Curriculum and Instruction offers two options. The C&I strand is directed toward the preparation of master classroom teachers. The English as a Second Language strand prepares teachers to serve limited English proficient students. These programs will enable the teacher to:

- increase mastery in the skills of teaching
- achieve a deeper penetration in subjects
- enhance understanding of the learner and the process of education
- become a resource person for curriculum development.

TARGET AUDIENCE:

Classroom teachers.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS:

1. Bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited institution.
2. Graduate admission application including an objective statement.
3. Official transcripts from Bachelor's degree (and for any Master's degree earned as well).
4. Evidence of ability to achieve success:
 - a. or regular graduate status, a grade-point average (GPA) of 2.85/4.0 or better in all previous college work, or
 - b. or probationary status, a GPA of 2.25 to 2.84
