This 32-hour program blends online courses with intensive studio experience for one week each summer on the EIU Charleston campus. There are two program options: Art Education and Community Arts. Both may be completed in two years and neither leads to teacher licensure.

TARGET AUDIENCE:

- Option in Art Education: Certified K-12 Art Teachers
- Option in Community Arts: Elementary Teachers, Special Needs Teachers, Early Childhood Educators, Artists, Community Workers, Museum Educators, Art Center Educators, and other Appropriate Professionals

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS:

1. Official application to The Graduate School. <http://www.eiu.edu/graduate/aboutadmissions.php>
2. Minimum GPA of 2.75/4.0; Minimum TOEFL score of 550 for international students.
3. Non-refundable application fee of $30.
4. Three letters of recommendation.
5. Art Education Option requires at least two years of teaching experience in art education.
6. Community Arts Option requires a BFA, BA, BS, or a minor in a Visual Arts degree program, Art History, Museum Studies, or 18 hours of art courses.

COST:

$299 per credit hour. See <http://www.eiu.edu/artmaonline/tuitionandfees.pdf>

REGISTRATION PROCEDURE:

Once admitted, registration and advising will be handled in consultation with the program director.

ACADEMIC CALENDAR:

Summer, Fall and Spring Semesters
