MEDIA ADVISORY

EXPLORE PSYCHOLOGY DEGREE OPPORTUNITIES IN LAKE COUNTY

The University Center of Lake County is partnering with three of its member institutions to host an event on Thursday, October 30 from 4 to 6 pm which will highlight the educational and career opportunities in the field of psychology. North Park University and Northeastern Illinois University will each present information about its bachelor's degree completion program in psychology. The Chicago School of Professional Psychology will present its graduate degrees in school psychology and clinical psychology with a counseling specialization. Representatives from each program will be available to speak with individual students to answer questions and provide further information. A general overview of the University Center will also be provided, as will literature about Concordia University Chicago's graduate program in school counseling and Dominican University's graduate program in social work.

There is no admission charge for the event, but advance registration is appreciated. Attendees may register with Tonia Baxter, University Center Recruitment Specialist/Advisor, by email to tbaxter@ucenter.org or phone to (847) 665-4014. The event will be held at the Center's Grayslake facility at 1200 University Center Drive.

For more information about programs offered through the University Center of Lake County, visit its website www.ucenter.org or call 847/665-4000.
